

IMSA AMSTERDAM
SUSTAINABILITY & INNOVATION

Curriculum vitae Wouter van Dieren

Name: Wouter van Dieren
Date of birth: April 15, 1941
Nationality: Dutch

Key qualifications

- Environmental management consulting
- Mediation and consensus building in complex negotiations processes with many stakeholders
- Environmental policy development
- Sustainable development policy design and innovation
- Media experience (television, radio, author, commentator, editor).

Current positions and awards

- President, IMSA Amsterdam
- Officer, Royal Order of Orange-Nassau
- Rachel Carson medal 2006 (The Association of Environmental Scientists VVM, with 2000 members. The Rachel Carson Medal is their highest award.)
- The Dutch Environment Trophée 1997.

Education

- MSc Human Ecology, Athens, 1979
- BSc Systems Theory, New York, 1974
- BA Social Psychology, Amsterdam, 1966.

Board functions and memberships

- Club of Rome, member
- OASE Foundation, Board member
- Öko-Institut, member of the Board of the Legacy of the Future Foundation, Freiburg, Germany
- World Academy of Art and Science, Minneapolis, USA, member
- Factor 10 Group, Carnoules, France, member
- The Biofocus Foundation, Stockholm, Sweden, Board member
- Spadel Nederland, Maarssen, the Netherlands, Advisory Board member
- De Kleine Aarde, Advisory Board member
- Pugwash, the Netherlands, member
- Mansholt Prize Jury, member
- The Polman Group, member
- Commission on Globalisation, State of the World Forum, San Francisco, member
- The China-U.S. Center for Sustainable Development, Portland, USA, member of the Board of Councilors
- Nobel Prize on Sustainability, Sweden, supporter
- World Futures Council Initiative, supporter
- Tendris, Chairman of the Advisory Board
- Development Alternatives Foundation, India/Holland, Chairman
- Stichting Jurriaan H. Andriessen, member
- Stichting Traveling Light, member
- Biologica, the Dutch umbrella organisation for organic farming and food, Advisory Board member
- Association for the Dutch Cultural Landscape (Vereniging Nederlands Cultuurlandschap), Advisory Board member

Major publications

- New Green Deal – beyond the financial crisis, 2009
- The island and the world - Wouter van Dieren, forty years of sustainable entrepreneurship, 2006
- A report to the Club of Rome on the Green GNP in three languages:
Taking Nature into account. - New York, 1995
Mit der Natur rechnen. - Basel, 1995

De natuur telt ook mee. - Utrecht, 1995

- Groene economie (Green economics). - Delft, 1983
- Nature's price. - Baarn, 1977
- 1680 publications in the daily press, in weeklies, on television, and in the formal science literature between 1970 – 2006.